Hard Coal Miners Get $1.90 Boost

Washington, (AP) — President Truman last night accepted the resignation of Archibald Cox as chairman of the Wage Stabilization Board (WSB) and named Charles C. Killingsworth to replace him.

Cox quit in protest against Truman's decision to overrule the board in the soft coal wage increase case. Truman ordered approval of the full $1.90 a day increase negotiated by John L. Lewis for his United Mine Workers. The board had voted against any increase beyond $1.50 a day, on the ground it would be inflationary.

Cox said in his letter of resignation that he recognized that "under all the circumstances it may be more consonant with the national interest to permit the collective bargaining agreements to take effect."

But he said that if so, it should be done "by general suspension of wage and price controls in all segments of the economy except those few where acute shortages still create strong inflationary pressures."

Killingsworth, the new board chairman, is a 35-year-old economics professor from Michigan State College. He had been vice chairman.

Despite the speedy shift in chairman, the wage board was unable to function because of a boycott by its six industry members, who had sided with Cox and the five other public members in the mine wage dispute.

The industry members called a meeting for today at which they may decide whether to follow Cox's lead and resign. Some of them at least were believed certain to pull out. One told a reporter the President's action made a "mockery" of the board's work.

The increase granted by the President was for diggers of soft coal.

Late yesterday the government approved a daily wage boost of about $1.90 for hard coal miners. Economic Stabilizer Roger Putnam wrote a letter to the WSB saying Truman's soft coal decision "of course would extend to any other similar contract involving coal minings." Thus he directed the board to stamp approval on the raise negotiated by the hard coal men.

It was uncertain just when the board would be able to comply with Putnam's order, because of its disorganized state.

The six labor members of the WSB, although outwardly pleased that the miners are going to get the full increase, were unhappy that the WSB was overruled. They themselves had voted for the full $1.90, but the public-industry majority cut the raise back to $1.50.

The labor members said the presidential overturn set a precedent which could work both ways. They appeared agreed that Truman's decision destroyed the integrity of the tri-partite system, and they predicted it would have a "terrific and disappointing" impact on other unions which have accepted WSB wage reduction orders.

Unusual Occupation Is That Of Scranton Man Who Keeps Books In Ship-Shape Condition By 'Changing Their Oil'

By Peter Olwyler

Some 900 books in the county library had their oil changed yesterday.

This is the specialty of a bouncy, smallish, gray-haired man with a wide smile, headquarters in Scranton, and only about a dozen other competitors in the United States.

His business card says "R. H. Gardner, bookbinder," but the adjective doesn't fit the job.

For more than 30 years Gardner has seen to it that a few million books under his care don't dry out, crack, split, break, tear or get eaten off shelves by hungry bugs.

To do this, Gardner, or his staff of six must service each separate book once every three or four years. To get through with such a monumental job the workers are fast.

Routine treatment for the 900 leather-bound books among the law library's 7,000 volumes includes a lightning-fast massage by hand with Virginia beeswax and neat's-foot oil dissolved in a special solvent.

The clear, jelly-like stuff is rubbed on bindings, covers and edges—wherever the leather is exposed. Any small breaks or splits are repaired with fabricoid, glue, paste, and other materials of the trade. The last step is a light brushing of cellulose acetate on the backs, because they are exposed to air and most likely to dry out.

LITERARY GREASE JOB—Three of R. H. Gardner's six experts whiz through the job of oiling and repairing 900 leather-bound books in the Monroe County law library at the Court House. Norman Gardner, cousin of the manager, deftly balances an entire shelf of 15 heavy law books while cousin June Gardner speedily rubs a mixture of beeswax and neat's-foot oil into a volume. Tom Williams applies paste to a piece of fabricoid used for reinforcing worn binding. (Daily Record Photo)

One such oil massage, face lifting and repainting costs 15 cents a book—about a nickle a year. It saves the cost of rebinding a book for $3.

Gardner got into the business at 17 by assisting a German who was servicing Harvard's tremendous (Continued on page eleven)

HST, Adlai Map Party Plans; Nation's Welfare Uppermost

Washington, (AP) — President Truman and the man he hoped would succeed him discussed plans yesterday for recapturing control of Congress in 1954. But both expressed agreement that the country's welfare should be placed ahead of the Democratic party's.

As Gov. Adlai E. Stevenson put it: "Party interests must be subordinated to the interests of the country and the public welfare."

Hours later Truman told a news conference the Democrats should give the new Republican administration a chance to operate, and he said he will be as happy as anybody else if the Republicans operate all right.

That was the President's way of declining requests for comment on President-elect Dwight D. Eisenhower's Cabinet designations.

Truman said his talks with Gov. Stevenson, the unsuccessful Democratic nominee for president, dealt with plans for keeping the party alive so it can take over Congress again in 1954.

"We do not intend to try to influence Democrats in Congress to obstruct, delay or in any way imperil the national welfare and the new administration's program insofar as it is compatible with the views of our party," Stevenson said.

The Illinois governor, who came here Wednesday to discuss the party's future with Truman, had an amiable session with reporters at the White House, where he is a guest.

The Democrats' two major problems, he said, are to pay off a deficit of more than half a million dollars and to "serve the public interest."

"Our job now," he said, "is to recognize that the Democratic party can regain public confidence and esteem only to the extent that it serves the national interest."

As for his own future, Stevenson said he has no immediate plans other than to take a long rest and possibly travel abroad.

The Democrats' two major problems, he said, are to pay off a deficit of more than half a million dollars and to "serve the public interest."

"Our job now," he said, "is to recognize that the Democratic party can regain public confidence and esteem only to the extent that it serves the national interest."

Court Orders OPS To Lift Ceilings

Washington, (AP) — A federal court yesterday set a 20-day deadline for the Office of Price Stabilization to act on a petition to abolish controls on a long list of food products processed from fruits and vegetables. The list includes many baby foods.

The others are Communists, he said, but they still are Koreans and are not alien prisoners of war. He said it would reflect on Korea's sovereignty to send them to the demilitarized zone, even temporarily.

Deputy Governor G. C. Bowers said Mrs. Sedor, 9, and her two daughters, Sedor, 7, and Clivia, 7, Bowers said he found a note in Mrs. Wilson's purse, addressed to her husband, Jack Wilson, a commercial artist.

Practical Joker's Powder Flares, Burns Alderman

Scranton, (AP) — Gun powder placed in an ash tray in the office of Police Magistrate Terrence J. Murphy exploded yesterday when Alderman Lawrence DePaolo placed a lighted cigar on it.

An investigation showed the gun powder had been placed in the ash tray by a practical joker, identity not determined.

DePaolo was burned on the right hand. The magistrate's clerk, Harold Donohue, bit his lip as he jumped backward when the powder shot a 4-foot flame into the air.

South Koreans Reject India Peace Proposal

United Nations, N. Y., (AP) — South Korea turned down yesterday an Indian compromise proposal for ending the Korean War as the president of the U. N. Assembly wrote an appeal to the Communists to accept it.

Y. T. Pyun, foreign minister of the U. N.-sponsored Republic of Korea, announced here that his government could not accept the Indian resolution, approved Wednesday by 54 of the 60 U. N. members, because "it is against the spirit of the Constitution of the Republic of Korea."

Western delegates said privately they would not worry about South Korea's stand if the Communists did the unexpected and agreed to the proposal.

Pyun objected to the heart of the plan, which is a provision for sending thousands of North Korean war prisoners to a demilitarized zone from which they would be repatriated by a U. N. commission. Pyun said his government regarded the prisoners as liberated Koreans. Those who desired to remain in the South should be liberated now, he added.

The others are Communists, he said, but they still are Koreans and are not alien prisoners of war. He said it would reflect on Korea's sovereignty to send them to the demilitarized zone, even temporarily.

Deputy Governor G. C. Bowers said Mrs. Sedor, 9, and her two daughters, Sedor, 7, and Clivia, 7, Bowers said he found a note in Mrs. Wilson's purse, addressed to her husband, Jack Wilson, a commercial artist.

Grade Crossing Crash Kills Four

Sunnyvale, Calif., (AP) — A 37-year-old mother put her three children in the family car, went to a railway crossing and apparently drove the machine deliberately in front of an oncoming train yesterday.

Then he told a reporter: "When I met her she was a girl and, as far as I am concerned, she's a girl now. She's got a personality that's hard to beat, the best looks, best clothes, best features, and best body of any girl I ever met."

Christine, who once served a tour of duty at George Jorgensen in the U. S. Army, underwent the operation which changed her sex in Denmark. Calhoun said she had

CIO Elects Reuther To Presidency

Atlantic City, (AP) — Dynamic Walter P. Reuther was elected president of the CIO yesterday in a political scrap winding up the labor group's annual convention.

Reuther, 45-year-old chief of the CIO's million-member auto workers union, was selected in a hotly-contested balloting over Allan S. Haywood, veteran 64-year-old executive vice president of the organization.

The voting was 3,079,181 for Reuther, and 2,613,103 for Haywood, based on the CIO's claimed membership of 5,692,284. Reuther thus won by 466,078 votes.

The red-haired Reuther, perhaps best known for his many proposals for social change in the United States, succeeds the late Philip Murray who had guided the CIO for a dozen years before his sudden death Nov. 9.

Despite the bitter battle between the opposing Reuther and Haywood forces, both sides pledged afterward to bury the hatchet and work together in the future.

After Reuther was elected CIO president, Haywood, amid much praise for his long work in the labor movement, was unanimously re-elected as executive vice-president. James B. Carey, head of the CIO's electrical workers union, was re-elected secretary-treasurer.

The convention adopted a resolution calling for more cooperation between the CIO and the AFL, and an eventual merger if it could be arranged.

Reuther became the third president in the CIO's 17-year history. The first was John L. Lewis, now president of the independent United Mine Workers union; the second was Murray.

Donnelly Said To Have Quit Post In Reich

Washington, (AP) — Walter J. Donnelly, one of the top career diplomats in the State Department, has resigned as U. S. high commissioner to Germany, officers said yesterday.

Administration informants said President Truman has accepted the resignation but has delayed announcing it for diplomatic reasons.

The 56-year-old diplomat, a veteran of nearly 30 years in government service, has been the highest-ranking American official in Allied-occupied Western Germany since last July 18 when he was named to succeed John J. McCloy.

Previously he had served as U. S. high commissioner to Austria.

Donnelly was reported to have informed President Truman that he wanted to retire from the government to enter private business. Most of his diplomatic career has been spent in South America.

The Washington Star said he would become representative of a large United States firm in South America.

New York, (AP) — Jacob Grumet, New York City fire commissioner, yesterday warned women there were "inherent dangers in the use of liquid hair nets."

Air Force Sergeant In England Discloses Secret Romance With Christine Jorgensen

U. S. Air Base, Bentwater, Eng., (AP) — A U. S. Air Force sergeant said yesterday Christine (ex-George) Jorgensen of the Bronx, New York, whose sex has been changed from male to female by an operation, is his girl friend.

Staff Sgt. Bill Calhoun, 24, of Everman, Tex., said he would not have disclosed his secret if a buddy had not noticed a picture of the sergeant's blonde pinup girl above Calhoun's barracks bed.

Calhoun, who has been in England for a year and a half, said he met Christine, 26, on an otherwise lonely leave in Copenhagen, Denmark last spring.

Then he told a reporter: "When I met her she was a girl and, as far as I am concerned, she's a girl now. She's got a personality that's hard to beat, the best looks, best clothes, best features, and best body of any girl I ever met."

He emphasized that his feelings toward Christine have not changed but explained that he had "taken a ribbing from the boys on the base—all good naturedly."

He gave this account of his meeting with Christine: "I was on leave in Copenhagen this spring with nothing much to do. I saw this good-looking blonde in a park. She looked like an American, and I decided to ask her."

"She told me she came from the Bronx and showed me around the city as a guide."

"Next day when my buddy and myself were leaving, she saw us off."

Calhoun said that on returning to England he had corresponded with Christine last summer and later taken a six-day leave on the continent, meeting Christine again. They visited high spots and historical sites.

Investigators Accuse Some U.S. Attorneys

Washington, (AP) — House investigators yesterday accused some government attorneys of loose ethical standards and recommended tightening of the entire body of law covering bribery, gratuities and "kick-backs."

"When lawyers who have the United States itself as their client lapse into practices such as fee-splitting, bribe-taking and double-dealing, prejudicing their client for personal gain and advantage, it is time for drastic measures," they asserted.

The criticisms were contained in the seventh of a series of reports by a House judiciary subcommittee on the results of its investigation of the Justice Department.

Investigators exempted Atty. Gen. McGranery from their harsh-handed treatment of what they found to be a "wholly shameful" situation within the department in past years.

But they concluded: "Far too many of our government leaders have suffered from 'Washington conscience.'"

"This unpardonable justification that 'everybody is doing it' must be stopped."

They stated that "the only workable rule on gifts and favors flowing to officials from persons with whom they deal officially is an absolute rule: There can be none."

Workmen Rescue Trapped Miner

Pottsville, (AP) — Rescue workers freed a hard coal miner trapped 40 feet underground for 10 hours yesterday after a priest risked his life by crawling through a coal fall to administer the last rites.

Sylvester Prosper, 50, of Wadesville, who was dug out from a fall which had buried him up to his neck, was taken to Pottsville Hospital and reported in satisfactory condition.

More than a score of miners formed a human chain to help lift a four-man stretcher team bearing Prosper from an underground prison where he had lain four hours before a truck driver discovered his plight.

Seoul, (AP) — The Chinese Communists broke off their attacks on Sniper Ridge on the Central Front yesterday after 24 hours of close-in battle in the coldest weather of the year.

Alleged Reds Ousted From United Nations

United Nations, N. Y., (AP) — Eighteen American U. N. employees who refused to answer U. S. federal inquiries on subversion have been fired or will be dismissed today by Secretary-General Trygve Lie. U. N. sources said last night.

Nine of them already have been fired for balking at questions of the U. S. Senate internal security subcommittee headed by Sen. Pat McCarran (D-Nev.) or queries of New York federal grand juries.

The other nine refused yesterday to give what Lie regarded as satisfactory answers at his own follow-up inquiry and are to be let out today, the sources said, when Lie makes a public report.

Six of those already bounced were ousted by the U. N. after the McCarran Committee began public anti-Red dragnet hearings in New York in October. The other three of these were fired earlier in the year.

The nine expected to be fired today have been on special leave with pay by order of Lie since their McCarran Committee appearances.

Of those already fired, Lie had announced six dismissals earlier from time to time. Three were new. It was the first disclosure of this total of nine fired.

A U. N. spokesman recalled last night that Lie said when previously announcing some firings that he had acted not only because of refusal to testify but on further evidence supplied to him by U. S. security agencies.

Since then Lie has had the advice this week of a three-man panel of international lawyers on how to deal with Americans under fire who work for him.

The jurists recommended that Lie fire any employee who refused to answer questions about alleged links with the Communist party or anti-American espionage because such refusal created a "climate of suspicion."

Lie had given the nine pending until noon yesterday to tell him the answers to the questions they had dodged. Their replies to Lie were reported unsatisfactory.

A U. N. source said Lie would have a statement on the issue this morning.

Sugar Ray's Title Vacated

New York, (AP) — The New York State Athletic Commission this morning vacated Sugar Ray Robinson's middleweight championship.

Chairman Robert Christenberry of the commission in a statement said that the title was being vacated because of Robinson's not complying with a rule that says a champion must defend his crown every six months.

Christenberry said he had given Robinson an extra month to decide whether to continue his boxing or go into a career as an entertainer. Up to now, he has not had an answer from Robinson.

Sugar Ray recently made an appearance in a New York night club as a singer, dancer and gag man.

Christenberry said he would be happy to work with the National Boxing Association, the British Board of Boxing Control and European Boxing Union to determine plans to decide who will succeed Robinson.

Bell Drafts New Rate Schedules

Philadelphia, (AP) — The Bell Telephone Co. of Pennsylvania rushed completion of a new schedule of subscriber rates yesterday in order to take advantage of recently granted increases effective Dec. 7.

A spokesman for Bell said the company hoped to have the new schedule of rates ready for presentation to the state Public Utility Commission in Harrisburg late today. The company must file the rates with the commission before they can be put into effect.

The necessity for drawing up a new schedule came after the company requested a $33,000,000 per year rate increase which would have raised the average subscriber's bill by 50 cents a month.

The PUC on Tuesday sliced that request to $21,227,000 per year. It will mean an average monthly increase to users of the service of about 32 cents.

Ross Twp. Man Found Dead In Truck

Michael A. ter Linden, 58, left his Ross Township home early yesterday morning to take his young son to the school bus stop.

The man and his son sat in the father's truck, waiting for the bus to come. When it arrived, young Michael J. ter Linden remembers that his "father was coughing" and "gasping for breath."

The boy did not know until he returned home from school that his father was dead.

The elder ter Linden apparently died as his son had left him, seated in the truck near the bus stop.

His wife, Alice, who could see the parked truck from the windows of their home, because suspicious that something was wrong at "about 8:15 a.m." Mrs. ter Linden walked from the house up to the truck and found her husband slumped in the seat.

Dr. John Martucci, Brodheads-ville, and the State police sub-station were summoned. Dr. Martucci, who conducted only a summary investigation upon arrival at the scene, asked police to refer the case to Dr. William Andrew, Monroe County coroner.

Dr. Andrew said last night, when contacted by telephone, that no autopsy would be performed. The coroner said he had not signed the death certificate "yet" but that it would be signed sometime today. Mr. ter Linden, a retired New York City policeman, had lived in Ross Township the past five years. He was a veteran of World War One, and a member of the VFW and American Legion in Brooklyn, N. Y., and of the Yew Tree Lodge No. 461, F and AM in that borough.

He was the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Everitt ter Linden of New York.

Surviving, in addition to his wife and son, at home, are his two sisters, Mrs. Samuel Wiseman, Long Beach, N. Y., and Mrs. Phillip Nelson, Daytona Beach, Fla.

Funeral services will be held Monday at 2 p.m. at Kresge funeral home, Brodheads-ville, Rev. Adan Bohner officiating. Burial will be made in the Kunkletown Cemetery. Friends may call at the funeral home Sunday from 7 to 9 p.m.

Pvt. Stettler In Korea With U.S. Engineers

With I Corps in Korea—Pvt. Carl R. Stettler, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Stettler, of East Stroudsburg, Pa., is serving with the 1092nd Engineer Combat Battalion, which soon will mark its second year in Korea.

A West Virginia National Guard unit now filled with men from all parts of the United States, the 1092nd distinguished itself last winter with one of the most difficult engineering feats of the Korean campaign.

Construction specialists from his battalion maintained the only floating bridge which stayed in place across the turbulent Imjin River, often fighting ice several feet thick.

Stettler, a driver in the 1092nd's Company C, arrived in Korea last February.

A veteran of 21 months Army service, he holds the UN and Korean Service Ribbons, the Army of Occupation Medal for service in Japan and the Purple Heart for wounds received in action.

Miss Maynor Combines Beautiful Voice With Personal Charm To Thrill Concert Audience

By Leonard Randolph

The fourth act aria "Pace, pace mio Dio" (Peace, peace, oh Lord) from Verdi's "La Forza del Destino" is certainly one of the most beautiful ever written. It is also far too seldom included on the programs of concert singers.

I, for one, was doubly grateful for its appearance on the program of music presented by Miss Dorothy Maynor at the East Stroudsburg State Teachers College auditorium Wednesday night. The first reason for this gratitude was the tragic beauty of the music itself. The second reason was the singer.

From the time Miss Maynor walked on the stage, it was apparent to all those attending, I think, that here was a lady of great personal charm and magnetism. She more than fulfilled advance expectations concerning her ability as an artist with her first solo, the lyrical "Sommi Dei" from "Radamisto" by Handel.

In her second selection, the aforementioned "Pace" aria from "The Forces of Destiny," Miss Maynor conveyed nearly all the heart-searing emotion of the original scene without benefit of context, fellow actor or melodramatics.

If there is one thing which characterizes Miss Maynor's performance as a whole, it must be understatement. An actress of great merit as well as a great singer, she is capable of expressing the most tragic or touching emotion through a simple gesture, a slight twist of the body or a humble nod of the head.

This sincerity may be a part of the singer's own "reverence" for the music she sings. Whatever it is, there can be no doubt it augments and brings to perfection the performance; it is the thing which enables Miss Maynor to hold her audience in absolute silence through even the softest passage.

The program Dorothy Maynor chose for her appearance here is another indication of her own attitude toward music—and toward her audience. There were few concessions to the "popular" on Wednesday night's list of songs.

During the second portion of her program, Miss Maynor made a temporary bow to Schubert by singing two of that composer's best-known and most-performed pieces—"Who Is Sylvia" and "The Erl-King." The most obviously "popular" selection on the program, however, would be Johannes Brahms "Wiegenlied" (Cradle Song).

Miss Maynor's singing of the lullaby is perhaps the best illustration of that magical quality she brings to a song. This particular Brahms piece has been done to death by all forms of mass entertainment media. In many hands it has become what is commonly known as a warhorse.

But when the gracious, warmly beautiful woman in the gold gown who occupied the stage Wednesday night began to sing the familiar words, it became obvious that even such a well-known tune could be made new again. Here again, the projection of emotion through simple actions played an all-important part. For when Miss Maynor poised her hand in mid-air, above an imaginary cradle, it seemed that any moment the lights might dim, revealing the figure of a sleeping child.

My own favorites on Miss Maynor's widely-varied program were the flashing "Malaguena" by Nin; Claude Debussy's bitterly beautiful "Beau Soir" and the same composer's "Air de Lia"; the melodious "Tell Me Why" by Tchaikowsky; and two numbers by Modeste Moussorgsky—the soaring "Little Star" and an alternately lively and sad satire on romanticism, the "Hopak" describing an old peasant woman's dream of a by-gone love.

No program by a great Negro artist would seem complete without the performance of at least one spiritual.

Miss Maynor chose one of the most beloved of all these—"Swing Low, Sweet Chariot." I've never heard it sung more beautifully by a single woman's voice.

The rest of Miss Maynor's program was of excellent quality. Her appearance locally, as a part of the Pocono Community Concerts season, was an event of the highest importance.

The capacity audience which plowed its way through the after-effects of the season's first bad storm deserved—and got—something of extreme value.

That was the chance to hear one of the truly great artists of our time in a musical program which should place her firmly in their affections for many years to come.

Hunter Hit By Shot From Wife's Rifle

Milford—A 31-year-old Matamoras man was accidentally shot while hunting in Westfall Township, Pike County, Wednesday afternoon and taken to St. Francis Hospital, Port Jervis.

State police here said the victim, Ernest Quick, was walking ahead of his wife at 4:30 p.m. when the .32 caliber rifle his wife was carrying discharged. Quick was hit in the right leg below the knee and taken to the hospital by Douglas Curry, also of Matamoras.

Tannersville Man Elected To Position

Tannersville—Donald A. Robbins Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald A. Robbins Sr., of Tannersville, assumed duties this week as a new staff assistant at the Binghamton (N. Y.) Chamber of Commerce.

Chamber Manager Claude N. Sherman said Robbins will assist with the work of the various chamber committees and councils. Prior to going to Binghamton, Robbins was employed by the Christian Science Monitor in Boston, Mass. Before that, he had served in the Army, working as an Army correspondent in Korea for nine months.

From April, 1952, until his discharge in August, he conducted lecture and discussion classes for non-commissioned officers and new trainees of the Fifth Infantry Division at Indiantown Gap, Pa. He was graduated from Temple University in 1950.

Seniors Present Annual Play

Stroudsburg High School seniors last night presented the first of two performances of their class play "Mother Is A Freshman" at the school auditorium.

An enthusiastic audience of community residents was in attendance. The second performance will be given tonight in the auditorium.

Although it is believed that dry land often has been depressed to form deep oceans, there is little evidence to show that deep ocean beds ever have been elevated to form land.

VFW Pledges 200 Pints Of Blood Quota

Dec. 22 has been set as the day when VFW members in Stroudsburg will try to recoup bloodbank shortages for the county.

Monroe is 111 pints behind on its quota at present. With the December quota at 125 pints, a total of 236 pints must be collected to wipe out all shortages.

Of the minimum 236 pints, the VFW members will contribute 200, according to Larry Zaccaro, post public relations officer, and Robert Bixler Jr., on the blood donor committee of the post.

In addition to VFW men, however, contributions from all classes of local resident workers and businessmen will be sought at the same time, on the same day, at the post.

The Red Cross bloodmobile will be at the post and will take blood contributions from noon to 6 p.m. Zaccaro said the VFW will pick up anyone who wants to make a blood donation and who has no transportation to and from the post.

"Remember our buddies in Korea," Zaccaro quotes the VFW's slogan, "at Yuletide. Our greetings, and the best of luck from us to you." This greeting would be in blood, Zaccaro said.

Three One-Act Plays Given

Ike's Unusual Choice

In choosing Martin P. Durkin to be his secretary of labor, General Eisenhower has made an unusual departure from the orthodox way of starting a new administration—especially for a political party which has been out of office 20 years.

Mr. Durkin is a Democrat and a professional labor leader who backed Governor Stevenson, although perhaps not as factiously as some other union partisans.

While obviously many union members voted for General Eisenhower, and a few union leaders openly endorsed him, the union movement officially was opposed to his election.

Moreover, we'd say as a general rule that a special pleader for one section of the labor movement should not be running the Labor Department. Despite its name, it is not a department concerned with labor problems but in the service of the whole public.

These things must have been considered by the President-elect. So he must have had other motives, which seemed over-riding to him.

We don't know what they were. But the main virtue of the Durkin appointment is that it rounds out the full circle of viewpoints in the Eisenhower cabinet.

In a cabinet spotted with business executives and Republican leaders, union labor now has a strong voice. In addition, Mr. Durkin is experienced as an administrator, having headed the Illinois Labor Department in two administrations, one Democratic and one Republican.

On this basis, the Durkin appointment should be helpful to national unity in a time when that is imperative.

And, on the same basis, it is neither so "incredible" as Senator Taft protests, nor the "affront" to millions of union members he seems to think it is. The Senator may express his opinions, but General Eisenhower, having been elected by a snowstorm of votes, now is President for everybody.

Stroudsburg Daily Record

Dear Sir:
The Thursday issue of The Daily Record, on page three (3) carried an item of local interest that I feel is worthy of comment. Comment from me that is perhaps prejudiced to some extent, but of interest to each and every one of us living in Monroe County and Stroudsburg in particular.

This community has given "all-out" in its effort to meet goals set by Community Chest and American Red Cross officials during the past several months.

Employees and employers alike throughout Monroe County have been urged to contribute, and in many instances, donations were made by people who could ill afford to donate their earnings to any community drive for funds.

I am not aware of the actual amount of money collected during these two (2) drives; however, I am quite certain the total ran into many thousands of dollars, which we were told would be available for distribution in time of need to deserving persons in the Monroe County area.

Many of us have on occasion heard criticism of these organizations in the past and it is perhaps because of instances of which I am writing that makes the meeting of yearly quotas for the organizations more difficult each succeeding year.

The Thursday edition of your paper carried a request for donation, issued by the American Red Cross, for bed, mattress and covers to be used by a needy family of our community.

Is it too much to expect one of these two (2) organizations to step in immediately with needed help either in the form of money or exact items needed, purchased by the money these two (2) organizations have pledged to us would be readily available during time of need for residents of Monroe County.

Next year's Community Chest and Red Cross drives are off to their own start even before their present drive is over.

How To Cut Campaign Costs

Television has upped the cost of political campaigns so much that cries of pain have reached Congress and nudged it into an inquiry with an eye to fixing limits. Both parties spent millions in appeals to TV audiences. A political campaign has become a screen super-production calling for super-dough. Something must be done. We propose:

1. That an arrangement be made under which a candidate for the Presidency of the United States may come onto the living room screen DURING WEST-ERN. The speech could be made from a stagecoach, from behind a boulder or even from the saloon window through which the cowboy jumps on horseback. (No real interruption of the picture. Thus no expense.)

2. That the same idea be applied in the telecasting of who-dunnits and crime pictures, a candidate being allowed to sound off somewhere between the "Harrigan, you cover the side entrance" and "Good Work, Madison, you scooped the city." (For instance Senator Nixon could explain his finances, perhaps, from a motorcycle sidecar during a pursuit of the felons by the police.) Cost to the party: not a dime.

3. That there be a Share-the-Screen Plan through which on half the screen you see a regular comedy program and on the other half a candidate for office. (This could conceivably put a dog and pony act in the White House, and calls for caution.)

4. That candidates take less video time. Any orator who takes more than five minutes on the same night that "I Love Lucy," Uncle Miltie or Groucho Marx appears is performing loses countless votes. Even during the five or ten minutes we would insist that a candidate play some musical instrument, do a ventriloquist act or go into a ball-toss.

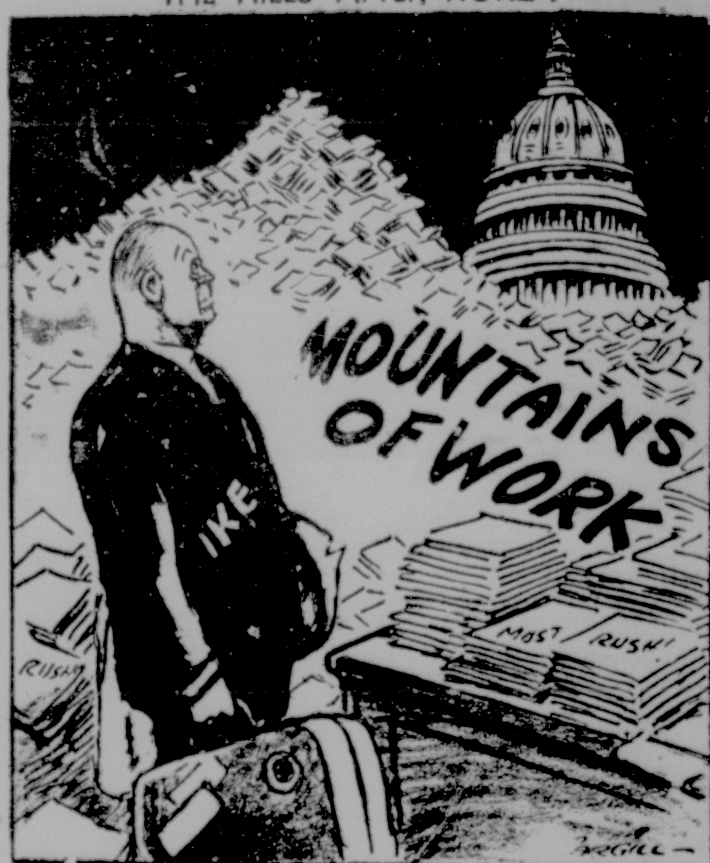

Another suggestion from this corner is that I cut out of every dollar he taken by TV from all payment for cigarette, beer, toothpaste and soap sponsors, the total to be used to create a fund for campaign telecasts in the best interests of our democracy. (This would raise millions and win a friendlier audience for the cigarettes, soaps, etc.) Or a tenth of a cent could be chucked into a pool by all sponsors every time the words "Yes, there is nothing like, etc." and "Go to your nearest dealer now" are used in any commercial. (Boy, would that mean big money!) Yes, we have still another idea: Make all video performers who take over $1,000 per night and give a lousy show toss half the money into a "First Aid Election Campaigns Pool." Or how about having the millions of panelists now appearing hourly chip in a few dollars for each appearance? (What? You say that there are only five or six? Can that be so? :))

American Telephone, one of the highest priced stocks, has taken from a leap forward. . . . Probably on the report that the pay-station phone at Queens College, which was still taking nickles instead of dimes, had been run down and removed. . . . "High Climber" won at $37 this week and you should have had it, since the chart writer's comment was "Moving up." . . . Mrs. Eisenhower was shown the White House, and any chance of an embarrassing moment was avoided by Mrs. Truman who is too sensible to ask another woman, "What do you think of my drapes?" . . . We wish somebody would tell us what that Sarnoff sketch on neckties on video was all about? . . . Martin Durkin, top man of the Plumbers Union, is the new secretary of labor, and nobody can say a plumber's helper doesn't bring everything he has to a job. . . . Bunk of the week: Director of a big house publishing lurid "paper book" featuring the lewd and bawdy, telling a Congressional committee that such books are no more objectionable than the works of Plato, Homer and Shakespeare and "contribute to the education and literacy of the public." . . . How absurd can a man get?

New York is to get a super-duper coliseum into which Madison Square Garden could be set and look like a courtroom. . . . A horse show hockey game and prize fight could be held the same night, but we already dread a confusion in which we will hear "The horse taking the high jump is wearing purple trunks," and

NLRB Should Refuse Services To Four Communist Unions

Washington Report - - - By Fulton Lewis, Jr.

Washington—In the interest of fairness, I take note of the Justice Department's action against four international unions suspected of harboring labor bosses who are accused of lying when they denied Communist party membership.

I decline to retract any previous criticism and expressions of amazement over the department's failure to enforce the Taft-Hartley law provision denying National Labor Relations Board service to Red-controlled unions. However, the Department of Justice, at the direction of President Truman's stop-gap Attorney General, James P. McGranery, finally has obtained a grand jury indictment against four Red-front unions.

All four submitted affidavits from their officials which affirmed under oath that they were not, at the time of filing, members of the Communist party, U.S.A. The grand jury presentation termed the affidavits "not worth the paper they were written on," an assumption many of us have had for years.

The unions are the United Electrical Workers, the American Communication Association, The Fur and Leather Workers and the Distributive Processing Office Workers. All have been subjects of congressional reports. In each case they were labeled Communist-controlled, and a number of union officials seated in the witness chair were bashful about replying when asked if they were Communists. All four unions were tossed out of the CIO as Communist-controlled.

The Taft-Hartley act specifically states that a Communist-controlled union cannot employ NLRB officials in its behalf when in a labor dispute with management. In other words, a Red-union has no standing in the eyes of the labor law now on the statute books. The labor act was so written to encourage rank and file union members to dump their Red-hued officials. Some have tried without success.

Action against lying union officials connected with the Communist Party.

"Kid McGinty just took one on the chin, but the judges are asking him to trot and canter." . . . Jack Benny was might funny on his last telecast. . . . A legal panel, asked by Trygve Lie (what puzzled him so much?) to explain how to treat subversives, came out with some straight talk on hiding behind the fifth amendment that should worry the boys who use it to dodge any question about past activities. . . . It ruled that the privilege under the fifth amendment can be used only when the witness really believes his answer would constitute evidence against him for a criminal offense. . . .

Stalin Doesn't Wander Far From Leninism; Russia Anxious That Korean War Continue

These Days - - - - - By George Sokolsky

It startled many of the U.N. delegates, including American and British officials, when Vishinsky pushed himself out of the regular order to speak against the awkward Indian proposal for a settlement of the Korean War. It was not expected that Soviet Russia would be so adamantly opposed to the Indian plan, which from no standpoint can be regarded as favorable to the United States.

The gist of the Indian proposal is that a United Nations commission of five be appointed to deal with the question of prisoners of war: two from Communist nations, two from neutral nations, with an umpire.

To grasp why Vishinsky jumped the gun in this curious way, one has to go back to the bible of Stalinism, the "Foundation of Leninism," written by none other than Joe Stalin, himself. This book is a blue print for Soviet action and it answers many obscure questions. For this must never be forgotten: the Russians do not employ empirical means in the course of building their empire. They have set goals from which they never deviate. Their line may zig-zag but the goal is fixed. And their ultimate aim is a world Bolshevik revolution. So let us quote an interesting passage which is directly pertinent to the Vishinsky response to the Indian proposal for the settlement of the Korean War:

"Tactics are the determination of the line of conduct of the proletariat for the comparatively short period of the ebb or flow of the movement, of the rise or decline of the revolution, the struggle to carry out this line by replacing old forms of struggle and of organization by new ones, old slogans by new ones, by combining these forms, etc. While the aim of strategy is to win the war . . . against the bourgeoisie, to carry the struggle . . . to its end, tactics concern themselves with less important aims, as they strive, not to win the war as a whole, but rather to win a particular engagement, or a particular battle; to carry through successfully a particular campaign or action corresponding to the concrete circumstances of the rise or decline of the revolution. Tactics are a part of strategy, subordinate and subservient to it."

Lenin, with a tiny party, unfavorably received by most of his countrymen, with a small leadership of a handful of intellectuals, conquered his own country by sheer impudence at a moment of political vacuum. But conquering Russia, even in 1917, was no small matter. It gave to theoretical Marxism, a base with the largest land area on earth and about 180,000,000 people. Lenin's problem was to reorient this people into Bolshevism. Trotsky rebuilt it as a military force. Stalin developed it into an industrialized state capable of modern military action. These three built the new Russian Empire. To Stalin goes further credit of duping Franklin D. Roosevelt and of achieving for Russia the position of the second world state—second only to the United States.

In human history, the second has always insisted upon becoming first and that has been cause of the great wars. Since 1943, the active aim of Soviet Russia has been the destruction of the United States. As matters now stand, the Korean War is a Russian instrument for bleeding the United States economically, while pinning down American forces in an untenable position. Every effort that American diplomacy and military strategy has made to free itself from the Korean War has thus far been thwarted by Soviet Russia which does not want that war to end.

We are precisely where we were in June 1951, while the Communists have improved their military position and have made our alliance with Great Britain precarious. The real danger is that should Aneurin Bevan reach power in Great Britain, the Russians would have the advantage in that country, which would then become neutral but in the hands of Socialists.

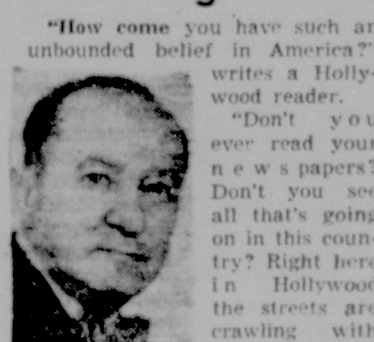

John Foster Dulles, the impending Secretary of State, is a student of Marxist and Stalinist doctrine, and he ought to be in a position to anticipate rather than to follow Stalin's moves.

The advantage to us is that Stalin does not wander far from orthodox Leninism; Stalin's advantage heretofore has been the ignorance of our statesmen on this subject.

The Sphinx, Egypt's giant statue, half man, half lion, is the biggest sculptured figure on earth. It was built more than 4,000 years before Christ.

Looking At Life —by Erich Brandeis

"How come you have such an unbounded belief in America?" writes a Hollywood reader.

"Don't you ever read your news papers? Don't you see all that's going on in this country? Right here in Hollywood the streets are crawling with Com m u n i s t s."

And you people in the East certainly have your share of troubles. The day of opportunity is OVER!

"Wake up, Brandeis, wake up!"

Yes, I do read the newspapers and I do keep my eyes open.

That's why I believe in America—and love it.

For instance, I just read an article about General David Sarnoff, chairman of the board of the Radio Corporation of America.

He was born in Uzman, Russia. In 1901, the son of very poor parents.

At the age of nine they brought him to America, where he was educated. In 1906 he became a messenger boy with the Commercial Cable Company. He didn't Manhattan. It was a shame, the neighbor said, judging from his screen roles, that such a nice woman had such a nasty son.

To the question whether he'd rather play a hero or a heavy, Steve has a ready answer: "I don't care, just so it's the best part in the picture!"

At lunch with McNally the other day, I learned a few other details about him: He's of Irish ancestry and the only member of his large family who went into show business. His father was a New York school principal.

Steve enjoyed participating in school plays, but an acting career seemed remote and unattainable. So he graduated in law at Fordham University, practiced for two years, and made no money.

The Great Wall of China was built many centuries ago to protect the country from invasion by barbarian tribes to the north.

America—the land of unlimited opportunities and possibilities!

like it there. So he switched over to the Marconi Wireless Company.

He took a special course in electrical engineering at Brooklyn's Pratt Institute.

After three years with the Marconi Company, he was promoted to manager of their station at Sea Gate, N. Y.

From there on his career reads like a Horatio Alger story.

But there is no miracle anywhere in it. There is no evidence of any special pull or favoritism. It is just a story of what America has in store for a boy who has brains and is willing to make the best of those brains.

I could, of course, have used the life story of another immigrant boy, if I had wanted to see only the seamy side of America.

America, this "land of unlimited possibilities," as the Europeans used to call it, has opportunities both ways—to rise to the top or sink to the bottom.

The other story is that of Thomas "Three Finger Brown" Luchese, investigated by the crime commission, who also received the TOP in his chosen profession.

He was born Gaetano Luchese in Palermo, Sicily, just eight years after General Sarnoff. He came to the United States in 1911, just 11 years after the general.

In 1936 he made application to become an American citizen. By that time Sarnoff had risen to the presidency of the Radio Corporation of America.

And, also by that time, Luchese already had five arrests and one felony conviction to his credit. But he didn't tell the immigration authorities anything about that, so he got his citizenship papers.

While General Sarnoff rose to ever higher honors in his chosen profession, "Three Finger Brown" also rose in his.

He became a friend of Lucky Luciano, Frank Costello and many other underworld characters.

Today he is considered chairman of the board of New York's underworld.

Try And Stop Me

—by Bennet Cerf

Charles Coburn, veteran Hollywood star, observes that young men today seem actually afraid to get married and start raising a family. "Why, before I was married," boasts Mr. Coburn, "I never even knew the meaning of the word fear!"

The obsequious proprietor of a New England inn leaned over a new guest at the dinner table and boasted, "This is one of the landmarks of colonial Massachusetts. Every object in the building has a history." The guest interrupted sourly, "I bet you'd have to go pretty far back to unearth the history of this alleged spring chicken I'm eating."

Groups Join C. Of C. For Annual Dinner

Mount Pocono—Several hundred persons are expected to attend the Mount Pocono Chamber of Commerce banquet at Pocono Manor Inn at 7 p.m. Saturday.

Co-sponsors of the dinner, which Chamber of Commerce officials hope to make an annual affair, are the Newfoundland Rotary Club, Mount Pocono Rotary Club, Pocono Mountains Lions Club and Pocono Mountains Volunteer Fire Co.

William Crabbe, northeast recreation manager of the New York Herald-Tribune, will give the principal address on "Community Cooperation and Why Lose What We Have?"

Reports on accomplishments of the C. of C. in 1952 will be given, together with a preview of 1953 activities. A dance and entertainment will follow.

The chamber serves the district bounded by Blakeslee, Newfoundland, Paradise and Tannersville. While the banquet is primarily for people in this area, it is open to others throughout the Pocono Reservations may be made by calling Emma Mervin, secretary, at Mount Pocono 6381.

the comfort of self-delusion

THE BEST ADVICE is often more than we can bear. It takes courage to face the impact of truth, and firm resolution to form new habits to fit the facts.

Your doctor is sometimes confronted with the stern necessity of advising restrictions in your usual routine. Your favorite dessert or that comforting cigar may be denied you. There is a strong temptation to treat such advice lightly, to feel you know your needs better than your doctor.

Such self-delusion may be comforting, but it defeats the very ends you seek. Carefully follow your doctor's advice.

1953 LINCOLNS SWEEP FIELD IN MEXICAN PAN-AMERICAN RACE

Lincoln for 1953 is the automotive sensation of the world today!

1953 Lincolns in the Mexican Pan-American Race took not just first, not just second, but third and fourth places as well!

In the race participants call "the toughest stock car competition in the world," the winning Lincolns swept afiel of 66 other American production cars representing 11 other makes—and won by a big time advantage.

The first 1953 Lincoln to cross the line was driven over the tortuous 1,938-mile course in a total elapsed time of 21 hours, 15 minutes and 38 seconds. Then, within 10 minutes and 58 seconds, the three other winning Lincolns swept in—with the last one fully 20 minutes ahead of its nearest competitor.

Never before has there been such a record established in this International Contest organized by the A.N.A. (Asociacion Nacional Automovilistica)—a run that includes altitudes ranging higher than 10,000 feet—over roads of every type and condition.

Never before has a great car so clearly demonstrated both its performance superiority and ruggedness in such a competitive test.

The 1953 Lincoln, with its advanced design 205-hp engine—the V-205—is the car to challenge all others this year. So see the 1953 Lincoln—which is powered to leave the past far behind. Try it—drive it—for the performance revelation of a lifetime!

Nearly 3,000 Respond To T-B Appeal

Monroe County residents continued to send their money for purchase of Christmas Seals to the Tuberculosis and Health Society office in Stroudsburg this week—but more than half the letters remained unanswered.

When the drive to sell Christmas Seals—which is conducted annually by the Tuberculosis Society workers—opened last month a total of 7,293 letters were mailed out to citizens of the area.

Last night Mrs. Estelle Fleming counted a total 2,926 replies. This meant that 4,267 letters still had not been answered.

The society, which realizes that the Christmas season is a rush time for nearly all families, is now attempting to "remind" forgetful residents of the envelopes which contain the small, attractively-designed seals.

Tuberculosis Society workers and their executive secretary, Mrs. Fleming, joined yesterday in appealing to those who have not, as yet, mailed in their replies to do so just as soon as possible.

Christmas Seals—which supply the only financial support given to the Tuberculosis Society by the community in its continual drive against the country's most dangerous infectious disease—are sold

Study Group Will Analyze Family Needs

A study group whose duty will be exploring the needs of a Family Service organization in Monroe County is in the process of being organized at the suggestion of Mrs. Eugene Martin, chairman of the social planning committee of the Community Chest.

Family Service as a means of filling in gaps left by other agencies in the county has often been urged by various groups interested in welfare services, but there is no actual proof that such is the answer.

Therefore a study group, made up of representative citizens of the county, plans to explore and document all the available evidence, either for or against such a Family Service.

Mrs. T. F. Rhodes and Mrs. Claude W. Leister are co-chairmen of the group which includes 12 other persons, chosen to represent various sections and groups in the county.

The first meeting will be held at the Stroud Community House, Ninth and Main Streets in Stroudsburg on Monday night, December 8, at 8. At that time, Family Service will be defined and questions will be suggested for tabulation.

Persons who have been asked to serve on the Study Group committee have been asked to notify either of the co-chairmen if they will not be able to attend the meeting Monday night.

Clearview PTA Penny Supper Saturday Night

The Clearview Parent-Teachers Association is holding a penny supper at the school on Saturday night from 5:30 to 7, as the first of a series of projects designed to raise $1,000 pledged to the playground fund.

Mrs. John Schoonover is chairman of the committee of mothers preparing and serving the supper to which the public is invited. She is being assisted by Mrs. Philip Henning, Mrs. Elwood Smith, Mrs. Robert Mailey, Mrs. Mary Wakefield, Mrs. Rex Harding, Mrs. Edward Yost, Mrs. Walter Wertheimer, Mrs. Lawrence Schoenberger, Mrs. Robert Hellmann, Mrs. Raymond Kohn, Mrs. Arthur George, Mrs. Demsky, Mrs. Millie St. Bonnet, Mrs. Robert Wilson, Mrs. Mary Maginnis and Mrs. Van Gordon.

Just Between Us

—By Bobby Westbrook

The melting snow may keep on its merry way with everyone's blessing. I guess, judging by the way special events are piling up for next week. There's the Little Orchestra Society concert on Monday night, for instance where they're expecting all of you.

Then there's the dessert musicale on Tuesday—trying something new the Hospital Auxiliary is, with a view, perhaps, to keeping the members in the mood to cook the family's dinner by giving them their refreshments early in the day.

However, one thing puzzles me—since they're serving dessert simultaneously in three different homes, what's to prevent the greedy from hustling from one house to the other and getting three desserts? Except maybe hospital auxiliary members and their friends are never greedy, anyway.

Everybody's going fancy this Christmas time, it seems, in their programs and in their refreshments. The Woman's Club is having a professional dramatist; the Garden Club is going to the Penn-Stroud with the hostesses merely serving as a reception committee so they can enjoy the program instead of working in the kitchen.

Fortunately, there's a weekend in between the hazards of this week and the excitement of next week, and we'd best take full advantage of it.

Listen To—Bobby Westbrook daily, Monday through Friday, on "The Party Line" WVPO, 10:15 a.m.

MRS. KARL KARPA, the former Miss Linda Lee Heilenman, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Claude Heilenman, Canadensis, after her wedding last Saturday. (Lowry-Martin)

Chanukah Dinner Set For Dec. 14

Final plans for the Chanukah Dinner, sponsored by the Sisterhood of the Temple Israel were made at the Sisterhood meeting on Tuesday night in the vestry rooms of the temple. It is there that the dinner will be held on Sunday, December 14, at 6:30 p.m.

Reservations for the dinner must be made by Sunday, December 7, with Mrs. Leo Feinsiber, 566, chairman of the luncheon committee. Anyone who has not yet made reservations is asked to do so at once.

THE Wyckoff SHOPPER

According to Frank Weller and Vanda Powlette women will be walking on clouds in the new spring footwear, Vanda and Frank spent Monday in New York looking over the latest styles, and they are more enthusiastic than I've ever seen them. Every woman can, apparently, have a toe hold on glamour in 1953... Nothing ever appealed to me more than the Joe Patullo doll—cute little Joan, born on September 15 at Doctors Hospital, New York City. She's the only doll I've ever seen with her very own birth certificate, and mighty official looking it is too. Joan is a coy little flirt with long dark lashes over blue, blue eyes, and she wears a crisp pink organdy dress fastened with blue silk ribbons. Please, Santa, would you like to leave her in my upper left-hand desk drawer this Christmas?

Santa letters are piling in fast and furious these days, and if it weren't for the signatures it would be difficult to tell whether they are from girls or boys. The requests are very similar: cowboy boots, saddles, guns and holsters, jeans and western shirts—all the things a Wyckoff Santa would be certain to know about... Jerry Hinton of our Sears Store was making like a postman yesterday as he delivered to each Wyckoff employee an attractive catalogue announcing the Sears "Christmas Record Days" now in full swing. Clock radios, basketball sets, cedar chests, handsome lined oak and mahogany finish occasional tables, stunning TV sets costing only $10 down—these are just a few of the dozens of items for Christmas giving and getting. Seariously, friends, this is a SALE!... The Wise Men brought gifts of gold, frankincense and myrrh, and even today gifts of glitter and fragrance are the gifts most welcome beneath the Christmas tree. Coty knows this, and gives us a line of cosmetics and perfume designed to make every feminine heart skip beats. There's lipstick with Santa's cap and smiling face topping the golden tube; Santa atop a giant perfume stick, and falcons of perfume in golden swans, gilded cages, and shimmering bells. Here are gifts that combine frivolity with uncommonly good scents... Anne Putnam of our cosmetics department had an unexpected but very pleasant two-day visitor this week: Katherine Mahon, of the Helena Rubinstein Corporation with her snowy hair above a youthful face, and her pretty smile and pleasant personality Miss Mahon is a wonderful advertisement of what Rubinstein cosmetics will do for the delightfully mature woman... Cutest incident of yesterday was the remark of the lad, suddenly grown tall, who gazed with wonder at little Mabel Anderson and demanded, "Did you know you grow smaller all the time?" To which Mabel might have responded in the manner of the elf man, "But I'm quite as big for me, you know, as you are big for you."... We're open tonight, did you know? And Santa will be on his throne from 6:30 until nine o'clock. Come in, won't you?

The Whole Family can enjoy the excitement of your child's visit with Santa

All the doting relatives can be in on this big moment of the year for your youngster! Because, as your child talks with Santa, a photograph will be taken. There's no obligation to buy... but if you'd like to send one to Grandma and Aunt Susan, and keep one for you and Daddy, they are only 3 for $2.50, 6 for $4, and each comes in a special gay Christmas folder.

Books Have 'Oil Changed'

library. Dissatisfied with America—or perhaps its books—the German quit halfway through and went back home. Gardner finished the job.

Now he operates in three states, New York, Pennsylvania and Florida. Living along his book-serving route are such customers as the Metropolitan Art Museum, Cornell University, Syracuse U., the Bell Telephone people, Miami U., University of Florida, and thousands of libraries owned by lawyers, counties, business firms, schools.

Operations move along pretty smoothly now. The staff of six averages 1,500 volumes a day. There have been times when Gardner had setbacks, though, and moments of triumph as well.

A less successful competitor was first to tackle the problem of Palm-tree bugs and silver tail moths in Florida. They eat the labels and backs of cloth-bound books at that State from Jacksonville to Miami.

The competitor was killed by the bugs—indirectly, of course—and a number of lawyers were made ill. It came about when he conceived the idea of painting the bindings with an arsenic and shellac solution. It worked. The bugs died when they sampled the book bindings. Unfortunately, however, the competitor absorbed enough arsenic through handling so that he too died. Lawyers who pored over the carefully-poisoned volumes broke out in sores. The method was abandoned.

Gardner met the problem more directly. He tasted the book.

"Sure," he said, making nibbling gestures, "I tasted it. It tasted sweet. Naturally. That's why the bugs were eating it." A wheat starch is used to stiffen the cloth bindings. It was the wheat starch the bugs liked.

"What tastes bitter?" Mr. Gardner was asked. "Quinine," he answered.

"I made up a solution of quinine and treated the books with it. The books were so bitter the bugs wouldn't touch them. That was my method. Let the bugs live! Who cares, as long as they don't eat the books?"

The quinine treatment is still successful. Bugs just don't acquire a taste for it.

Gardner has been doing Monroe

County's law library for 20 years. He's not very much worried about competition breaking into his territory.

One reason may be the service he offers. If a book breaks, he will rebind it without cost as soon as it is mailed to him.

"If that roof leaked," he said, pointing to the plaster-patched leak in the high ceiling, "and soaked a lot of these books—I'd come right over and give them special treatment. Right away. Wouldn't charge a cent."

Service like this keeps Gardner returning over his book-oiling route for decades. Calvin Coolidge was a customer. In fact, Gardner tends to recall periods in terms of book service.

"Why I treated that library when old X was still using it," he is likely to say with a smile of surprise at having been so long in the business.

"Calf binding's the best," Gardner said flatly. "Genuine calf. That'll last forever." He flipped open a glass-front case and pulled out an age-darkened tome marked "Vol. I, Laws of Pennsylvania, 1700-1781."

Inside, on the title page, he pointed to the Roman numerals MDCCLXXII, indicating the book was 155 years old. "Probably one of the oldest books in this library. There are only about 50 here with genuine calf bindings. I don't know why they leave it on the shelf. It's probably priceless." He rubbed a hand over the dark leather cover. "See? It lasts. They tanned the leather slowly in those days. The oil stayed in the leather." He eyed the book judiciously and replaced it. Then he waved vaguely at a row of newer leather volumes.

"Sheepskin," he said brusquely. "Junk. Fall apart in 40 years."

Life of Riley

By JIM RILEY
Sports Editor

Among those wishing to change the new foul rule that we talked about in detail yesterday is Chris Denis, head basketball coach at East Stroudsburg State Teachers College. Denis, a graduate of the University of Southern California, has already forwarded his plan to the national rules committee. The Denis plan calls for an automatic gift of one point to the team fouled, in addition to one free throw. There would be only one free throw allowed, made or missed. The gift of one point, according to the likeable ESSTC court mentor, would speed up the game and cut down on fouls. The plan really has merit and will undoubtedly receive consideration at the next meeting of the rules committee.

East Stroudsburg High's football team is in line for two banquets next week, in addition to the one held on Tuesday of this week. The varsity, plus manager John Kolcum, will eat at the Crystal Restaurant on Monday, while the East Stroudsburg school board gives the team that won eight and lost only one game a banquet on Wednesday, in the junior high school building. I understand that there are still more to come.

While on the subject of football, it might be a good idea to mention that yesterday's presentation of the Little Brown Jug to East Stroudsburg was conducted with the same good sportsmanship and feeling that featured the Stroudsburg-East Stroudsburg grid tussle on Thanksgiving Day. Wouldn't it have been something this season if Stroudsburg and East Stroudsburg were one school? The combined football team that could have been fielded would have been battling such schools as Reading and Allentown for state honors. Local fans would have been able to see the two-planet system at its best.

East Stroudsburg State Teachers College took the measure of Moravian College in a practice basketball game last month, but just the opposite was the case on Wednesday of this week. However, the Warriors are hopeful of getting away from the post in winning style tomorrow, when the charges of Coach Chris Denis play host to Millersville on the Normal Hill court. Millersville fell before LaSalle on Wednesday, 83-38, but it must be remembered that LaSalle is one of the top college teams in the country.

Charley Edson, tallest member of the Stroudsburg High basketball team, was unable to play against Bangor last Tuesday because of a cut over his eye that required one stitch to close. The good relationship between Bangor and Stroudsburg players and coaches off the floor is remarkable, despite the intense rivalry between the two schools. I believe Coach John Heard has done a fine job since taking over the reins of the school. Heard has done a fine job since taking over the maroon and white clad game machine.

Howard "Hoody" Marshall, former basketball and football star at Stroudsburg High, is becoming an expert shark and barbacuda fisherman at his Army station in the British West Indies. Marshall never liked fishing before going to work for Uncle Sam. Mansfield State Teachers College has made public a fine basketball press and radio guide. Mansfield doesn't play ESSTC in basketball this season.

Browns, Tigers Take Part In First Major Deal Of Winter

By Jack Hand

Phoenix, Ariz., (AP)—The St. Louis Browns plugged gaps in its pitching staff and outfield and Detroit continued its rebuilding program yesterday in a major six-man deal involving an estimated $250,000 worth of player talent. It was the fourth Tiger-Browns swap in nine months involving a total of 24 player shifts.

White Sox, Browns Refuse TV Permission

Phoenix, Ariz., (AP)—The St. Louis Browns and Chicago White Sox have refused to grant the six other American League clubs permission to broadcast and televise any games in which these two clubs may participate on the road, it was announced yesterday.

The six other clubs signed a new two-year agreement, starting January 1, for reciprocal radio and television rights.

Just what effect the action by the Browns and White Sox will have on the radio-TV picture in the other cities was not immediately apparent.

But it was certain to have far-reaching consequences.

ESSTC Booters Enjoy Banquet

A banquet was held for the undefeated East Stroudsburg State Teachers College soccer team in the school dining room last night. The affair was made possible by Mrs. Edna Colonius, school dietitian, who prepared the special meal.

Speeches by Joe Maiorillo and Tom Roberts, co-captains of the ESSTC booters spoke briefly, as did Coach Howard DeNike and Art Nuss, team manager.

Chris Denis, basketball coach and assistant dean of men lettered a soccer ball and each member of the squad signed it. The ball will be placed in the ESSTC trophy case.

ESSTC won seven and tied one game this season.

Texas Christian Mentor Retires

Fl. Worth, Tex., (AP)—L. R. "Dutch" Meyer, who believed passing was the perfect way to pay dirt, yesterday stepped down as football coach at Texas Christian University after 19 years of plotting razzle dazzle football.

New Coach—The little man will be succeeded by his chief assistant, Othol "Abe" Martin. Meyer, 54, who went from waterboy to head coach in a story-book career, will remain as athletic director.

Pocono, TTHS, Coolbaugh, Polk Play Today

Greene-Dreher, Milford Appear In Local Area

Four members of the Monroe County League take part in pre-season basketball games today, three on their home courts and the fourth on the road. Each card features a junior varsity and varsity encounter, with the preliminary contest slated to begin at 7:15 p. m. and the main event one hour later.

game, and second contest of the season, tonight, with Greene-Dreher-Sterling High providing the opposition on the Tannersville hardwood. Pocono lost its opener to Barrett, while Greene-Dreher will be making its initial appearance of the present campaign.

Toboyanna Township High, king of the Monroe County League for the past three years, will play host to the Stroudsburg High junior varsity tonight, at Pocono Pines. The preliminary tussle on this card will send the TTHS junior varsity against Stroudsburg Junior High.

Milford Coolbaugh High, loser to Moscow on Tuesday of this week, 43-41, will attempt to even its record tonight when Milford, complete with a new coach, invades the home domain of the green and white clad Coolbaugh contingent, coached by Don Wismer. Coolbaugh is out to even its record at one victory and the same number of defeats.

Polk is the only Monroe County League team scheduled to go through its paces on a foreign court tonight, when the charges of Coach Art Smith invade the home domain of March Chunk High. Polk defeated the Alumni, 46-39, in its only outing this far this season.

Smith announced last night that his starting lineup would feature Norman Scheller and Melvin Meekes at the forward posts; Ken Hawk, center, and Wilbur Zachary and Marty Kreechel at the guard positions.

Surprise Hits Wayne League

Newfoundland—Northern Wayne upset Honesdale at Lakewood Tuesday night, 45-42 and it appears that it is going to be "one of those years" in the Wayne County Basketball Conference this season.

Honesdale, although hard hit by graduation last June, figured to win this one handily and be away winging in an effort to stop the three-year reign of Waymart. Now the Hornets are one loss down to the Warriors and this may prove to be an unsurmountable handicap.

Action—Waymart opens tonight against the Hawley Buckhorns in WCC play after having split a pair of recent games. "Red" Walsh's crew topped Jermyn Tuesday night, 63-62, after having dropped a thriller to St. Rose at the Carbondale CYC Friday, 49-47. Waymart beat the Roses in an earlier encounter.

Other WCC games on the slate tonight are Damascus at Northern Wayne and Pleasant Mount at Honesdale.

Porter is rated one of the best young prospects in the game and is expected to develop into a first stringer.

The third new Tiger is infielder Bob Friend, regular second baseman with the Browns in 1950 before he went into service.

The 25-year-oldster is due to get out of the Army this week. With Gerry Priddy still an uncertain factor because of the leg he broke last season, Friend may figure in the second or third base picture.

Slim Lead—The old Arkansas Traveler, as Harrison is known, held a two-stroke advantage over Al Besselink of Grossinger, N. Y., who had 135 for two rounds over the course.

Jack Shields of Glyn Eagle, Ill., the first day leader with a 66, slumped to a 73 and fell into a tie with Freddie Haas of New Orleans at 133.

Trucks May Not Report To St. Louis

Detroit, (AP)—From a hospital bed, pitcher Virgil Trucks said yesterday that because of his physical condition he might not report to the St. Louis Browns, to whom he was traded by the Detroit Tigers in a six-player deal.

Trucks, 33-year-old righthander who hurled two no-hit games for Detroit last season, underwent a gall bladder operation at Henry Ford Hospital last week.

Reason—"I don't know yet about my physical condition," he explained to reporters when informed of the deal that also sent pitcher Hal White and outfielder Johnny Groth to the Browns.

"My arm is fine, but it's my stomach I'm worried about."

Trucks, who already had signed his 1953 Detroit contract, expects to leave the hospital this weekend.

Syracuse Captures Lambert Trophy

New York, (AP)—The Orange Bowl-bound Syracuse football team yesterday was selected as the winner of the August V. Lambert Memorial Trophy, emblematic of the eastern college football championship.

Committee—Syracuse, unbeaten by an eastern rival and loser only to national champion Michigan State and a packed-Bolling Field team, was chosen by the vote of a committee of eastern sports writers and broadcasters.

Excitement—There was a flurry of excitement on the convention floor when Prentice Wilson, attorney for the Dallas club of the Texas League, threatened to seek "equitable relief elsewhere" unless Dallas' plea for considering revision of the major-minor league agreement was passed.

After the Dallas measure lost, 27-16, in the executive session held behind closed doors, Dick Burnett, Dallas owner, outlined his stand to the press.

"We do not want a law suit now," he said. "We do not want to break up organized baseball. But there must be a change."

Burnett charged "major league domination of the minors," pointing to a publication by the Brooklyn club that boasted of owning 400 players. He declared the ma-

Eastburg Gains Possession Of Brown Jug

East Stroudsburg High school gained official possession of the Little Brown Jug for the first time today, at a special assembly program in the high school building. The award is given each year to the winner of the football game between the two schools.

Marty Baldwin, donor of the "Jug," was introduced to the assembly by Ralph O. Burrows, principal of East Stroudsburg High. Baldwin in turn presented the "Jug" to Jerry Stulgaitis, Stroudsburg High grid coach, who in turn passed the "Jug" along to Al Adelmann, captain of the Stroudsburg squad.

Adelmann presented the award to Jack Kist, East Stroudsburg football coach, who gave the "Jug" to Dick Merring, East Stroudsburg captain, who in turn presented the "Jug" to Lewis Haslie, faculty athletic manager at East Stroudsburg High.

Haslie was the first to present the "Jug" to Stroudsburg eight year ago.

Each of the featured members of the program spoke briefly, pointing out the importance of the rivalry between the neighboring schools and the fine way in which the Thanksgiving Day football game was carried out this season.

Life of Riley

By JIM RILEY
Sports Editor

Among those wishing to change the new foul rule that we talked about in detail yesterday is Chris Denis, head basketball coach at East Stroudsburg State Teachers College. Denis, a graduate of the University of Southern California, has already forwarded his plan to the national rules committee. The Denis plan calls for an automatic gift of one point to the team fouled, in addition to one free throw. There would be only one free throw allowed, made or missed. The gift of one point, according to the likeable ESSTC court mentor, would speed up the game and cut down on fouls. The plan really has merit and will undoubtedly receive consideration at the next meeting of the rules committee.

East Stroudsburg High's football team is in line for two banquets next week, in addition to the one held on Tuesday of this week. The varsity, plus manager John Kolcum, will eat as the guest of the Crystal Restaurant on Monday, while the East Stroudsburg school board gives the team that won eight and lost only one game a banquet on Wednesday, in the junior high school building. I understand that there are still more to come.

While on the subject of football, it might be a good idea to mention that yesterday's presentation of the Little Brown Jug to East Stroudsburg was conducted with the same good sportsmanship and feeling that featured the Stroudsburg-East Stroudsburg grid tussle on Thanksgiving Day. Wouldn't it have been something this season if Stroudsburg and East Stroudsburg were one school? The combined football team that could have been fielded would have been battling such schools as Reading and Allentown for state honors. Local fans would have been able to see the two-platoon system at its best.

East Stroudsburg State Teachers College took the measure of Moravian College in a practice basketball game last month, but just the opposite was the case on Wednesday of this week. However, the Warriors are hopeful of getting away from the post in winning style tomorrow, when the charges of Coach Chris Denis play host to Millersville on the Normal Hill court. Millersville fell before LaSalle on Wednesday, 83-38, but it must be remembered that LaSalle is one of the top college teams in the country.

Charley Edson, tallest member of the Stroudsburg High basketball team, was unable to play against Bangor last Tuesday because of a cut over his eye that required one stitch to close. The good relationship between Bangor and Stroudsburg players and coaches off the floor is remarkable, despite the intense rivalry between the two schools. I believe Coach John Heard has the best Bangor basketball team in the history of the school. Heard has done a fine job since taking over the maroon and white clad game machine.

Howard "Hoody" Marshall, former basketball and football star at Stroudsburg High, is becoming an expert shark and barbacuda fisherman at his Army station in the British West Indies. Marshall never liked fishing before going to work for Uncle Sam. Mansfield State Teachers College has made public a fine basketball press and radio guide. Mansfield doesn't play ESSTC in basketball this season.

Browns, Tigers Take Part In First Major Deal Of Winter

By Jack Hand

Phoenix, Ariz., (AP)—The St. Louis Browns plugged gaps in its pitching staff and outfield and Detroit continued its rebuilding program yesterday in a major six-man deal involving an estimated $250,000 worth of player talent. It was the fourth Tiger-Browns swap in nine months involving a total of 24 player shifts.

White Sox, Browns Refuse TV Permission

Phoenix, Ariz., (AP)—The St. Louis Browns and Chicago White Sox have refused to grant the six other American League clubs permission to broadcast and televise any games in which these two clubs may participate on the road, it was announced yesterday.

The six other clubs signed a new two-year agreement, starting January 1, for reciprocal radio and television rights.

Just what effect the action by the Browns and White Sox will have on the radio-TV picture in the other cities was not immediately apparent.

But it was certain to have far-reaching consequences.

ESSTC Booters Enjoy Banquet

A banquet was held for the undefeated East Stroudsburg State Teachers College soccer team in the school dining room last night. The affair was made possible by Mrs. Edna Colonus, school dietitian, who prepared the special meal.

Speeches Joe Maiorillo and Tom Roberts, co-captains of the ESSTC booters spoke briefly, as did Coach Howard DeNike and Art Nuss, team manager.

Chris Denis, basketball coach and assistant dean of men lettered a soccer ball and each member of the squad signed it. The ball will be placed in the ESSTC trophy case.

ESSTC won seven and tied one game this season.

Texas Christian Mentor Retires

Fl. Worth, Tex., (AP)—L. R. "Dutch" Meyer, who believed passing was the perfect way to pay dirt, yesterday stepped down as football coach at Texas Christian University after 19 years of plotting razzle dazzle football.

New Coach The little man will be succeeded by his chief assistant, Otho "Abe" Martin. Meyer, 54, who went from water-boy to head coach in a story-book career, will remain as athletic director.

Greene-Dreher, Milford Appear In Local Area

Four members of the Monroe County League take part in pre-season basketball games today, three on their home courts and the fourth on the road. Each card features a junior varsity and varsity encounter, with the preliminary contest slated to begin at 7:15 p. m. and the main event one hour later.

Game, and second contest of the season, tonight, with Greene-Dreher-Sterling High providing the opposition on the Tannersville hardwood. Pocono lost its opener to Barrett, while Greene-Dreher will be making its initial appearance of the present campaign.

Tobysville Township High, king of the Monroe County League for the past three years, will play host to the Stroudsburg High junior varsity tonight, at Pocono Pines. The preliminary tussle on this card will send the TTHS junior varsity against Stroudsburg Junior High.

Milford Coolbaugh High, loser to Moscow on Tuesday of this week, 43-41, will attempt to even its record tonight when Milford, complete with a new coach, invades the home domain of the green and white clad Coolbaugh contingent, coached by Don Wismer. Coolbaugh is out to even its record at one victory and the same number of defeats.

Polk is the only Monroe County League team scheduled to go through its paces on a foreign court tonight, when the charges of Coach Art Smith invade the home domain of March Chunk High. Polk defeated the Alumni, 46-39, in its only outing this far this season.

Smith announced last night that his starting lineup would feature Norman Scheller and Melvin Meekes at the forward posts; Ken Hawk, center, and Wilbur Zachary and Marty Krechel at the guard positions.

Surprise Hits Wayne League

Newfoundland—Northern Wayne upset Honesdale at Lakewood Tuesday night, 45-42 and it appears that it is going to be "one of those years" in the Wayne County Basketball Conference this season.

Honesdale, although hard hit by graduation last June, figured to win this one handily and be away winging in an effort to stop the three-year reign of Waymart. Now the Hornets are one loss down to the Warriors and this may prove to be an unsurmountable handicap.

Action Waymart opens tonight against the Hawley Buckhorns in WCC play after having split a pair of recent games. "Red" Walsh's crew topped Jermyn Tuesday night, 63-62, after having dropped a thriller to St. Rose at the Carbondale CYC Friday, 49-47. Waymart beat the Roses in an earlier engagement.

Other WCC games on the slate tonight are Damascus at Northern Wayne and Pleasant Mount at Honesdale.

Return In return the Tigers obtained a young slugging outfielder in 25-year-old Bob Nieman whose .289 average included 18 homers and 74 runs batted in. Nieman created a sensation when he broke in with the Browns September 14, 1951, by hitting two home runs his first two trips to the plate to set a major league record.

Detroit also got potential catching help in 19-year-old J. W. Porter, the ex-Chicago $65,000 bonus kid, who hit only .250 with the Browns but 340 at Colorado Springs in the Western League last season.

Porter is rated one of the best young prospects in the game and is expected to develop into a first stringer.

The third new Tiger is infielder Bob Friend, regular second baseman with the Browns in 1950 before he went into service.

The 25-year-oldster is due to get out of the Army this week. With Gerry Priddy still an uncertain factor because of the leg he broke last season, Friend may figure in the second or third base picture.

Harrison Leads In Havana Golf

Havana (AP)—E. J. "Dutch" Harrison of Ardmore, Okla., fired a seven-under-par 65 yesterday to take the halfway lead in the Havana Invitation Golf Tournament with a 36-hole score of 133.

Slim Lead The old Arkansas Traveler, as Harrison is known, held a two-stroke advantage over Al Besselink of Grossinger, N. Y., who had 135 for two rounds over the course.

Jack Shields of Glyn Eagle, Ill., the first day leader with a 66, slumped to a 73 and fell into a tie with Freddie Haas of New Orleans at 139.

Trucks May Not Report To St. Louis

Detroit, (AP)—From a hospital bed, pitcher Virgil Trucks said yesterday that because of his physical condition he might not report to the St. Louis Browns, to whom he was traded by the Detroit Tigers in a six-player deal.

Trucks, 33-year-old righthander who hurled two no-hit games for Detroit last season, underwent a gall bladder operation at Henry Ford Hospital last week.

Reason "I don't know yet about my physical condition," he explained to reporters when informed of the deal that also sent pitcher Hal White and outfielder Johnny Groth to the Browns.

"My arm is fine, but it's my stomach I'm worried about."

Trucks, who already had signed his 1953 Detroit contract, expects to leave the hospital this weekend.

Syracuse Captures Lambert Trophy

New York (AP)—The Orange Bowl-bound Syracuse football team yesterday was selected as the winner of the August V. Lambert Memorial Trophy, emblematic of the eastern college football championship.

Committee Syracuse, unbeaten by an eastern rival and loser only to national champion Michigan State and a pro-packed Bowling Field team, was chosen by the vote of a committee of eastern sports writers and broadcasters.

New York, (AP)—Johnny Bratton, once one of the most inconsistent boxers in the game, shoots for his fifth straight victory tonight against Ralph "Tiger" Jones of Yonkers, N. Y., at Madison Square Garden.

Odds The former NBA welterweight king from Chicago is about four to one to beat the Tiger in their 10 rounder which will be broadcast and telecast coast-to-coast.

There's been no stopping Johnny since he mended his ways and his once fragile jaw.

Minors Pass New Bonus Rule, But Defeat Veeck's Proposal

Phoenix, Ariz., (AP)—The minor leagues yesterday turned down a proposal by Bill Veeck of the St. Louis Browns that would forbid major league clubs from signing any players without previous professional experience.

Veeck's plan also would have made it mandatory for all minor league players to have been made eligible for the draft after their first year of professional ball.

The members of the National Association of Minor Leagues did not even bother with discussion and voted the proposal down with a voice vote.

The assembly also voted that hereafter any such revolutionary suggestion or amendment must be submitted to the chairman of the national association at least 15 days before the annual convention.

Veeck's scheme came after the minors passed a few bonus rules, banned recall of optioned players after July 31, except for emergency cases, and continued the present high school rule.

Excitement There was a flurry of excitement on the convention floor when Prentice Wilson, attorney for the Dallas club of the Texas League, threatened to seek "equitable relief elsewhere" unless Dallas' plea for considering revision of the major-minor league agreement was passed.

After the Dallas measure lost, 27-16, in the executive session held behind closed doors, Dick Burnett, Dallas owner, outlined his stand to the press.

"We do not want a law suit now," he said. "We do not want to break up organized baseball. But there must be a change."

Burnett charged "major league domination of the minors," pointing to a publication by the Brooklyn club that boasted of owning 400 players. He declared the ma-

Eastburg Gains Possession Of Brown Jug

East Stroudsburg High school gained official possession of the Little Brown Jug for the first time today, at a special assembly program in the high school building. The award is given each year to the winner of the football game between the two schools.

Marty Baldwin, donor of the "Jug," was introduced to the assembly by Ralph O. Burrows, principal of East Stroudsburg High. Baldwin in turn presented the "Jug" to Jerry Stulgaitis, Stroudsburg High grid coach, who in turn passed the "Jug" along to Al Adelmann, captain of the Stroudsburg squad.

Presentation Adelmann presented the award to Jack Kist, East Stroudsburg football coach, who gave the "Jug" to Dick Merring, East Stroudsburg captain, who in turn presented the "Jug" to Lewis Hastie, faculty athletic manager at East Stroudsburg High.

Hastie was the first to present the "Jug" to Stroudsburg eight year ago.

Each of the featured members of the program spoke briefly, pointing out the importance of the rivalry between the neighboring schools and the fine way in which the Thanksgiving Day football game was carried out this season.

SKUNK'S PELT OF ITS SCENT....

ONE OF THE BEST WAYS TO KILL A SKUNK SO THAT HE WON'T RELEASE HIS SCENT IS WITH A CLEAN SHOT BETWEEN HIS EYES. IF SCENT IS RELEASED, BURY THE SKUNK IN SAND FOR SEVERAL DAYS AND ALL SCENT WILL BE GONE WHEN IT IS SKINNED. USE CARE IN SKINNING TO PREVENT RELEASING MORE SCENT.

A FAMILY OF SKUNKS THAT HAVE DENIED UP UNDER A HOUSE WILL LEAVE PEACEFULLY WHEN MOTHS ARE THROWN INTO THE PASSAGE. AFTERWARD, BLOCK ENTRY TO FURTHER TENANTS!
